

Bob Janjuah

Senior Independent Client Advisor

Bob Janjuah joined Nomura in 2010 as Co-Head of Global Macro Strategy within the Global Markets Research team. He joined from RBS, where he held the roles of Chief Credit Strategist (2006 to late 2008) and Chief Market Strategist (late 2008 until 2010). Bob has spent over 20 years in capital markets, including time at SBC/UBS, where he was Global Head of Credit Research in the mid and late 1990s, followed by various senior research and trading roles at SBC (Global Co-head, Credit Trading). His career also includes stints at Hypovereinsbank (Head of Credit Trading), at ABN Amro (Head of Proprietary Credit Trading and Macro Hedging) and Bear Stearns where Bob was responsible for Credit Strategy.