

Sajid Javid

Sajid Javid was appointed Financial Secretary to the Treasury on 7 October 2013. His responsibilities include financial services policy and overall strategic relationship with UK financial services. Previously he was Economic Secretary to the Treasury. He is the Conservative MP for Bromsgrove.

Sajid has been the Member of Parliament for Bromsgrove constituency since being elected in the 2010 General Election. He was a member of the Work and Pensions Select Committee from June to November 2010.

Before being elected MP, he worked in business and finance. Aged 25, he became a Vice President at Chase Manhattan Bank. He later moved to Deutsche Bank in London to help build its business in emerging market countries. Sajid left Deutsche Bank as a senior Managing Director in the summer of 2009 to give something back through politics.

Sajid attended state schools before studying economics and politics at Exeter University.

Sajid is married to Laura and they have 4 children.
